ADOPTING PARENTING COORDINATOR'S REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS

The Court received the May 4, 2016 Parenting Coordinator's Report and Recommendations.

IT IS ORDERED approving the recommendations and adopting them as an interim order of the Court unless a party files objections within 10 days of the date the Clerk files this order. Of course, the Court cannot compel Mr. Depasquale to submit to the evaluation/assessment the Parenting Coordinator recommended. If Mr. Depasquale does not submit to it, however, then Mother may not (1) leave the children with Mr. Depasquale without an adult supervisor or (2) allow Mr. Depasquale to drive the children. If Mr. Depasquale submits to such an evaluation/assessment, the Court will issue a separate order appointing a behavioral health professional for that function. Mr. Depasquale may select any of the four providers listed on page 2 of the Report and Recommendations. If Mr. Depasquale submits to such an evaluation/assessment, he must file and serve a written notice to that effect.
